ST. LOUIS, June 17.-Grifth's men rose to the occasion tolay, when with the Royal Bentals growling at their heels they ook a decisive stand against the Browns and beat them into subpission, 5 to 2. This victory wed two precious purposes-it yed the Nationals from tumbling to third place and it cut Cleveed's lead down to three and e-half games, the Yankees havmade the grade against the ocious Indians.

Wholesome hitting and heroic upport of Harry Harper and is successor, Bert Gallia, was he explanation of the second uccessive victory over the rowns, who have lost this series egardless of Walter Johnson's onduct in the final battle tomorow. This, incidentally, is the rst series the Browns have lost n two weeks, they having inlugurated what the local scribes ermed a "spring offensive" at wo weeks ago.

OF SEASON IN WEST TODAY

ST. LOUIS, June 17.-The Nationals finish their first series in the west tomorrow. The team leaves here immediately after the contest for Pittsburgh, where it is to meet the Pirates in an exhibition contest Monday, that being an off day in the schedule. Tuesday the team goes to Philadelphia for three days, after which it will spend four days in New York. As soon as the last combat with the Yankees takes place the club goes back to Washington, Boston being scheduled to open a series in the capital June 28.

and with him on the slab, considering the weak pitching Fielder Jones' club has been getting, the Nationals ought not to have a great deal of trouble finishing their first trip of the season in the west with a victory. The journey through this section has not been a very fortunate one for the Griffmen, but the "Old Fox" is looking for better things as soon as the club gets back on its own stamping Griff, with one eye on the gate and the other on second place, announced he would pitch Walter Johnson, the fireball king, tomorrow. Jim Park, a collegian, will start for the Browns. Looks like a self snat for Walter.

McBride's drive to left in the fourth took a bad bound past Shotton and was good for two bases and as many runs. There was an element of luck here, but McBride always can be considered a dependable hitter on these grounds. St. Louis is his hitting town.

Although the Browns have done remarkably well on this stand at home winning nine out of fourteen games the crowd today was less than 7,000. After their game Sunday the Griffmen will hurry to Pittsburgh, where they have an exhibition game with the Pirates Monday. Morgan slammed a double to left center in the fifth, but tried for three and was out by a whisker. Shotton to Johnson to Austin. This was unusual,

The Griffmen turned one of these around-the-hofn double plays in the second. Borton walked as a starter. Then Pratt hit to Foster, who threw to Morgan, who, in turn, threw to Judge, and the bases were clean.

Harper pitched one of the games that is hard on weak hearts. He was continually in the hole, but great fielding saved him more than once.

Three singles and a base on balls netted only one run for the Griffmen in the getaway inning. The hits came after one was out and Shanks, who was substituted for Louiseass. the Browns. It was Marsans who brought the home bugs to their feet in the sixth inning, when he grabbed Henry's low liner and pegged like a rifle shot to Hartley, doubling Judge at the plate. Some throw, a regular Speakerian play.

Griff put one over on Jones in the seventh. He waited until Fielder had sent Chapman up for Wellman and then sent Gallia in for Harper. Jones count-ered with Tobin for Chapman. A grand

GROTTO IS WINNER OVER SHRINE TEAM

Thousands of Persons See Veiled Prophets Defeat Almas Temple, 12 to 5.

FUNERAL MARCH PLAYED OVER SHRINE IN EFFIGY

Victors Go Through Ceremony, Bearing Vanquished Away on Stretcher,

BY H. C. BYRD.

Something like 8,000 persons wended their way to American League Park yesterday afternoon to have a good time enjoyng the antics of the annual Masonic base ball game. For six innings, though, instead of the customary fun the great crowd lost itself in absorbed interest in splendid struggle between representative teams of the two playgrounds of Masonry. But the opening of the seventh caused the telling of another story, placed the Grotto away ahead of the Shrine, and when the end of the final inning came the Kallipolis aggregation had proved the master, in cold figures by 12 to 5.

There undoubtedly are great secrets in the Mystic Shrine-it could not be otherwise-but there are certainly none pertaining to base ball that the Veiled Prophets failed to solve. The dark magic known to those familiar with the domains of the enchanted realm proved unsurmountable, keeping within itself the secrets of its own power and not failing to meet with adverse of the Arabic knights.

But the exposing of their secrets would not have bothered so much those who owe allegiance to the Almas Tember and not their opponents lowered run, after Cheney had given the visitors a three-run lead. Vaughn had the Superbas blanked up to the eighth, when they bunched four hits on top of a hit batter and tied the score.

With two out in the eleventh and Olson on first, Seaton passed Meyers purposely to get Coombs. The latter singled over second, the ball rolling to Williams, who tripped on the wet grass, and Olson came home with the winning run. Cutshaw was accidentally kicked in the face during a close play at first base and had to rectire.

A double-header will be played by Brooklyn and Philadelphia Monday. Tuesday will be Orphans' day, when 2,500 children will be admitted free. Score:
